LEAD PENCIL JOTTINGS.

Memoranda Made in the Reporter's Wanderings.

Local Spleen.

MONDAY.

—A large number of the friends of Mr. Will H. Wheeler went to the train this morning to shake hands with that gentleman and his family and bid them farewell. Mr. Wheeler left on the 6:30 train for California, where he goes to reside permanently.

—Mr. C. F. Brennecke, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Greenway, Ark., was married to Miss Belle Russell, of Greenway on the 3d inst. Mr. Brennecke captured the daughter of a prominent citizen of Greenway. The Courier, published in that town says Miss Russell was considered the belle of the town.

—The Directors of the new Bank are negotiating for a lot on which to erect a building for the Bank. They will build some where on Main street.

—Mr. J. G. Haydock has resigned the Auditorship of the Cape Girardeau Southwestern Railway.

—Use Cheatham's Tasteless Chili Tonic, better than pie, but it breaks the chills off short and no mistake. Guaranteed to cure. 50

—The employees of the Carbondale, Grand Tower & Cape Girardeau Railway had an excursion to this city yesterday. There were about sixty people on the train, and they were accompanied by the Murphysboro Brass Band. Mr. Wagner, formerly of this city, is leader of the Murphysboro Band and that fact is a guarantee that the band is first-class. The excursionists enjoyed the day here, and many of them regretted that they could not remain with us longer.

—Gen. J. A. Wickham, Adjutant-General of Missouri, writes to Capt. Bierth that "the entire forces of the State will go into camp some time in July. Hold yourself in readiness for the event."

—Father Nugent preached a very able and eloquent sermon in St. Vincent's Catholic Church Sunday afternoon.

—We publish elsewhere in this paper a communication regarding the price of time. We know nothing about the time business and we are therefore not prepared to say anything on the subject. If our time manufacturers desire to make any statement, our columns are open to them.

—Ask your druggist for Cheatham's Tasteless Chili Tonic. Distinguished from the old original by the word "tasteless" printed in red on all cartons and labels. A new departure, but the result of years of careful study and experimenting. "No cure no pay." Take it and be happy. 50

TUESDAY.

—Mr. and Mrs. Julius C. Fisher requests us to return thanks for them to their kind relatives and friends for the many useful and hand-some presents they received on the evening of their marriage.

—The First National Bank will occupy the Harris building on Main street. The location is convenient for all people who have business with a bank.

—Henry Koch, the contractor, began the brick work yesterday on D. A. Glenn's store building on Main street. The building will be completed ready for occupancy in about two months.

—Capt. John A. Snider is in attendance at the Common Pleas Court. Since Mr. Snider retired from office holding he is building up a good practice, and we are informed that he is very successful in all the cases in his charge.

—The New Madrid Record says three thousand dollars for self-binders went away from New Madrid this year. The farmers down in New Madrid county are raising more wheat than they used to raise. They find that wheat farming pays better than corn.

—The Cape's favorite steamer, the Idlewild, got in today at two o'clock p. m., with the finest trip she has had for a long time. Her cabin was over-crowded with passengers for the Cape. Bob Taylor says this is the largest passenger trip the Idlewild has had this year—in fact they had about all the people they could accommodate.

—A number of the jurymen for the Common Pleas Court went on an excursion to Commerce this afternoon on the steamer Idlewild.

—At last a majority of the citizens of Jackson have arrived at the conclusion that saloons are not so bad as they have been lead to believe, and they have signed a petition for a saloon, with the proviso, however, that there is to be but one saloon in the town, and that must be established in the rear end of a livery stable or blacksmith shop—or in some other secluded corner out of sight of the Cash-Book office.

—The New Madrid Record says the Hon. Marshall Arnold, of Benton, will deliver the address to the graduates of St. Vincent's College, this city, at the Annual Commencement next month. This is another case of going away from home to learn the news. Mr. Arnold is an able speaker and our people would be pleased to hear him speak on the occasion named, but if he has been invited to do so we have not been informed of the fact.

—Mrs. Spann has sold her property in this city and will move to St. Louis.

—Hunt's Cure is the greatest remedy for skin diseases ever known. Ringworm, itch and all kindred diseases positively and permanently cured. Your money will be refunded if it fails. Price 50 cents. 50

—D. A. Glenn left the city this morning for Eddyville, Ky., where he will spend a week or two visiting relatives.

—Albert Hawkins left this morning for Los Angeles, Cal., where he goes to seek his fortune.

—We are informed by one of our time manufacturers that our correspondent, "Competition," whose communication we published yesterday, did not state facts as regarding the price of time. The manufacturer says thirty cents per bushel is the regular price for time, but to the mechanics of this city a uniform price of twenty-five cents is charged. The mechanics are given a lower price than other people for the reason that they use large quantities of time. Our manufacturers say they are selling time as cheap as any time manufacturers in the country to customers at home and abroad.

—It was reported on the streets this morning that Henry Meysteadt had purchased the St. Charles Hotel property, but as yet there has been no sale made. A representative of the DEMOCRAT called on Mr. Meysteadt this afternoon to ascertain the facts, and that gentleman says he has not purchased, but he made Mr. John Painter an offer for the St. Charles Hotel property. He offered Mr. Painter twelve thousand dollars for the St. Charles Hotel and the building on the Levee occupied by Conrad Lind as a livery stable. He informs us that Mr. Painter holds the two buildings at fifteen thousand dollars.

—Cheatham's Tasteless Chili Tonic. Same as the old except in taste. Sweet as honey, but gets there just the same. The babies cry for it. Buy a bottle and see them smile. Guaranteed to cure. 50

WEDNESDAY.

—We understand that there will be a wedding on Spanish street next Wednesday.

—A Cape girl has captured the heart of a Maiden young man and the wedding will take place next month.

—Those who attended the colored school exhibition say they never witnessed a more interesting exhibition by school children. Prof. Cobb is surely a teacher whose work in the school room cannot be overrated. He is the right man in the right place, and he will be retained as Principal of our colored public school as long as he wants the position.

—L. J. Wray Post, G. A. R. of Egypt Mills, will join Just Post of this city on Decoration Day and take part in the ceremonies.

—Ed. Regenhart began work on a large two-story brick building at Gordonville last Monday for G. T. Siemens. Ed. writes that he will be at Gordonville about three weeks and he wants the DAILY DEMOCRAT while he is away from home.

—Dr. Bloney has arranged an electric bell from his office door to his bedroom. When you want the doctor's services during the night, after bed time just push the little bell on the electric bell. This little bell is for the convenience of regular patients and not for bad boys to monkey with.

—Buchmann's auction sale continues right along day and night and lots of goods are going off at remarkably low prices.

THURSDAY.

—Our restaurants were crowded with business yesterday, and our hotels did well, too.

—The Owl Club will give a grand excursion on the 14th of June to the St. Francis River.

—Present this card at the church door: "A new and novel way of inviting friends to a wedding. It is a Cape Girardeau invention."

—Dr. G. W. Travis has the finest flower garden in Southeast Missouri. The doctor and his lady take a great interest in the cultivation of flowers and as a result of their labor they are surrounded at their home with the rarest and most fragrant flowers that grow.

—English Spavin Liniment removes all Hard, Soft or Calloused Lumps and Blemishes from horses. Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Sweeney, Ring-bone, Stiffness, Sprains, all swollen Throats, Combs, etc. Save $5.00 by use of one bottle. Warranted the most Blemish cure ever known. Sold by Rider & Whitcherich, Druggists, Cape Girardeau, Mo.

—It was reported on the streets this morning that a young man in this city attempted to cross over to the other side last night by the morphine route, but we understand that cigarette smoking was what ailed the fellow. He smoked about twenty-five cigarettes in about that many minutes.

—Only a few more weeks and all our schools will be closed for the season. Then we will be lonesome for three long months.

—Workmen are at work putting a new slate roof on St. Vincent's Church building.

—Peter Carroll is plastering B. F. Speak's new house on Spanish street.

—The brick work on Otto Frederick's Good Hope street building was completed last week and the carpenters are now at work on the building.

—Hobbs & Son will move into their fine new store house about the first of August.

—That bright idea around on Main street is blowing about scooping somebody on the Normal Carbondale excursion, and from what we have learned since his return from that trip, we are inclined to think that he did sure enough make a scoop. He is a pushing man when it comes to scoops like the scoop he made over at Murphy-boro.

—The case of Robert T. Giboney against the German Insurance Company, of Freeport, Ill., occupied the attention of the Common Pleas Court this morning for two or three hours. The Judge has the case under advisement.

—Mrs. W. H. Kraye, of St. Louis, daughter of Mr. George Hirsch, of this city, has been here for a week or two visiting her parents and old friends.

—Eugene St. Avit returned home from Memphis, Tenn., Wednesday night. He came up on the steamer Cherokee. Gene is one of the Cape boys who has a host of friends and they were delighted to see him return home.

—Maj. Brooks, Chief Engineer on the St. Louis, Cape Girardeau and Fort Smith Railway, returned home today from Mammoth Springs, where he has been looking over the route of the proposed extension of the road.

—John Brod, one of the cleverest drummers that visits this city, is here this week looking after the wants of his customers. John has lots of friends in this part of the country, and if he hasn't got a good trade here he ought to have.

—John H. Bremermann, who was here on a visit, returned to St. Louis this morning. Before leaving he ordered the DEMOCRAT sent to his address in St. Louis.

—Daniel Woods, an old resident of Mississippi county, died Saturday night. His body was found Sunday morning hanging to a rafter in his wagon shed. Woods was a farmer, and was highly respected by his neighbors. The cause of his rash act is unknown.

Our Militia Boys.

At the meeting of the Cape City Guards, N. G. M., held in Armory Hall Monday night, Tony Gockel was elected First Lieutenant and Dr. W. T. Tolson Second Lieutenant. After the election the boys presented our City Marshal, Mr. Christ Hirsch, with a handsome suit of citizens clothes as a token of their high esteem for him as one member of the Company whose popularity has placed him in the office of City Marshal and Collector. After the ceremonies were all over the boys had a little "fun all by themselves" for a while, and from what we can learn, they had a pleasant time.

Another Row in Hagar.

Hell broke loose again in Hagar Tuesday evening, and for a while it looked as if there would be a regular riot, but it did not turn out so bad. A lot of horse traders met in that corner of the city and after imbibing freely they got into a row among themselves and soon a fierce battle was on. They used knives, clubs and rocks and several of the combatants were badly used up. One big fellow was out with a knife in more than a dozen places, but we understand he is not dangerously hurt. There were three or four men fighting this big man and he was proving too much for all of them when one of them plunged a knife into his breast. The parties who did the cutting left the city before an officer reached the battle ground, and no arrests were made.

Hagar has become the favorite resort for all the toughs in the city and surrounding country and some day, when they gather there it is dangerous for people to pass along the streets in that neighborhood. The city authorities should take some steps to put a stop to the violation of the law in that part of the town, and to do that a special police force will have to be appointed and put on duty at night.

The Cape Line Extension.

MAAMOTH SPRINGS, ARK. May 25.

Chief Engineer Brooks and Assistant Melton, of the St. Louis, Cape Girardeau and Fort Smith Railroad, were in town today. They were taking a topographical survey of a route to this place for their road. A number of citizens met them, and appropriate resolutions were passed. The road is already completed to Hunter, Mo.

Fisher-Pott.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father in this city, May 24th, 1891, by Rev. Flachsbart, of the Lutheran Church, Mr. Julius C. Fisher and Miss Martha Pott, daughter of Henry A. Pott.

The bridesmaids were Miss L. Fisher and Miss Emma Pott and the groomsmen were Mr. E. Pott and Mr. Peter Maul.

The bride was dressed in elegant attire, and looked as sweet as morning roses newly washed with dew. The groom wore the regulation black.

The wedding was attended by quite a large number of relatives and intimate friends, and after the ceremony was performed all were invited to partake of an elegant supper which was prepared by the bride and her sister.

The DEMOCRAT joins the many friends of the popular and worthy young couple in extending to them congratulations. May their union add to their already profitable lives, pure happiness and prosperity.

Following is a list of the presents received by the young couple:

Grandma Pott, ten dollars in gold; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fisher, Sr., parents of the groom, white bed spread; Miss Liddy Fisher, hand-made scarf; Miss Emma Pott, fancy rocking chair; Miss P. Maul, fancy rocking chair; Enel and Louis Pott, fancy flour barrel filled with flour; Mr. and Mrs. M. Burkhardt, Peru, Ind., table linen, napkins and pin cushion; Mr. and Mrs. H. Fisher, Jr., Sedalia, Mo., silver casket; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pott, fancy ten set; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Vogt, cooking stove; Mr. and Mrs. W. Pott, St. Louis, lace spreads and pillows; Mr. and Mrs. A. Yaeger, granite teapot, dozen breakfast plates, dozen dinner plates, white bed spread; Mr. and Mrs. Caspar Roth, plates, cups and saucers, butter dish, cream pitcher and salt shaker; Mr. and Mrs. A. Hutters, parlor lamp; Miss Martha Yaeger, table cloth and towel; Mr. John Bremermann, silver cake stand; Mrs. Alvina Bremermann, dozen desert dishes; Mr. J. A. Frank, parlor hanging lamp; Mrs. Frank Clock, Mrs. E. Graden, silver syrup stand; Mr. Wm. Vorweg, two live pigs; Mr. Johnie Graden, fancy water set; Mr. Katie Sherman, cake stand; Miss Anna Frank, desert set; Miss Emma Farhold, ten set; Mrs. Katie Sherman, table linen and napkins; Mr. and Mrs. A. Shivelbine, fancy sewing table; Little Willie Shivelbine, breakfast set; Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Miller, white bed spread and baby doll; Mr. John L. Miller, carpet sweeper; Mr. D. A. Glenn, table cloth and napkins; Mr. and Mrs. John St. Avit, fancy pitcher and handsome bouquet; Mrs. Virginia U. Cramer, handsome bouquet; Miss Hilda Roth, croch' t tidi; Rev. Flachsbart, prayer book.

Many more presents were among the above named on which the cards of the kind sender were lost and cannot be given.

He Got Up.

"Is there a man in all this audience," fiercely exclaimed a female lecturer, "that has ever done anything to lighten the burden resting on his wife's shoulders? What do you know of woman's work?"

"Is there a man here," she continued, "holding her arms and looking over her audience with superb scorn, 'that has ever got up in the morning, leaving his tired worn-out wife enjoy her slumbers, gone quietly down stairs, made the fire, cooked his own breakfast, sewed the missing buttons on the children's clothes, darned the family stockings, scoured the pots and kettles, cleaned and filled the lamps, swept the kitchen, and done all this if necessary, day after day uncomplainingly? If there is such a man in this audience, let him rise up! I should like to see him!"

And in the rear of the hall a mild-looking man in spectacles, in obedience to the summons, timidly arose. He was the husband of the eloquent speaker. It was the first time he had ever had a chance to assert himself.

160,000 combinations.
